This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 8 May 1953, concerning the application of [redacted] for employment in CIA. We have diligently searched for any record here of Mr. [redacted] application but have been unable to locate any record of it or the papers themselves. We checked back with your office, who have informed us that [redacted] was interviewed in February. We can only assume that when such an interview took place we suggested to [redacted] that he file the necessary application forms, and he has not done so as far as we can determine.

In case [redacted] application forms have gone astray, I am enclosing a second set herewith with the request that you forward them to him as we do not have his address on file here. If he will then return them to our Personnel Office, you may be assured that they will receive prompt and full consideration in the light of any vacancies that may exist.
